Thanks for the stories on Johnnay's trial. I knew the outcome because Carol called me that night but not the details in those stories.

Jerry was supposed to send me stories, including one that billed him as star witness, but I've heard nothing from him.

Nothing new here. Except Srying, as usual, beautiful.

Wish some of those bedding plants you are selling were closer. I&I wouldprobably want them everywhere, despite our inability to keep up with what we have.

Again, thanks,
